“Former Tory Councillor Joins Health Concern”

Independent Health Concern have today announced that former Tory Councillor for Wolverley, Nigel Addison has joined them.

Health Concern Leader, Howard Martin, has hailed it as a major coup for the party.

“We are delighted that Nigel has joined us, he is a respected and skilled activist and will prove to be a major asset to us in the future” said Councillor Martin. “It further proves that Health Concern continue to be a major force in Wyre Forest politics and are the only realistic opposition to the current Tory administration. We believe, with the addition of people like Nigel, that we will be able to mount a major challenge to the Tories at next years District elections.”

Nigel Addison left the Tories three years ago through disillusionment with their leadership. “I am extremely happy to have joined Health Concern and am a strong supporter of MP Dr Richard Taylor. He has proved himself to be much more than a single issue MP as his actions, in particular, against the Wolverhampton Airport and Drakelow Tunnel developments, has shown. The same can be said of Health Concern in general, they have a fine record on a wide range of local issues over the years and I am looking forward to working with them.” said Mr Addison.

Nigel will be Health Concern spokesperson for the Wolverley area and would be happy to hear from local residents on local matters.
